VOLUME FIFTY-SIX—NUMBER FORTY-TWO

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1934

O. P. SCHUMANN, Editor and Publisher

Grayling Game Club Formed

SUCCESSOR TO AUSABLE FURS, INC.

With the dissolution of the Ausable Furs, Inc., the members reorganized under the name of Grayling Game Club, Inc.

The plans of the new organization is for the feeding and propagation of wild game, such as deer and small game, game birds, and brook trout. There are 160 acres in the club property and is one of the best game covers in Michigan. It borders the east side of the Military reservation on the west and trunk line highway U. S. 27 on the north. Within its confines are two small lakes well stocked with brook trout and bass. These are commonly known as Simpson lakes.

The officers and directors of the club are as follows:

President—W. H. Hines, Detroit.

Vice President—J. H. Cooper, Detroit.

Secy. Treas.—R. A. Wright, Grayling.

The above officers together with the following form the board of directors:

J. C. Van Horne, Detroit.

O. A. Jennison, Lansing.

Hunters Must Have Permits.

Mr. Wright, manager of the club, says that it is not the intention of the club owners that local hunters be deprived of this privilege, however they must first secure a permit before doing so. This has for many years past been quite a favorite region of local sportsmen and the club members feel that it should continue to be available to those who comply with the requests. Upon application permits will be issued to local hunters at times when club members are not using the hunting grounds, and the grounds are not overcrowded with hunters. Only a limited number of hunters will be permitted to hunt there at any one time.

With the granting of this splendid privilege, the club feels that it is being very liberal. Any one hunting there, however, without complying with the regulations will be classed as trespassers without permission and will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

All trails roads crossing this property are closed to the public.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Patients at the hospital are—

Edward J. Ooddyke, CCC 681 and Edward Coompan, of Roscommon.

Those who have been dismissed are—Mrs. Paul Crawford, Grayling and Mrs. H. J. DeWaele, of Roscommon.

Donald Kangas had his tonsils removed at the hospital.

Gas Tax Doesn't Assure Lower Prices

Someone has said that Americans developed few voices fit for grand opera until howling about taxes became general. Any movement today to reduce taxes immediately enrages thousands of followers. History records that frequently these followers have been, in many instances, remarkably ignorant of the facts involved, but they apparently sense a possible means for the evasion of certain inherent tax claims to life, liberty, and the pursuit of knowledge and happiness.

The subject of the amendment concerning the gas tax and the weight tax—amendments 2 and 3—is a vital one. It is hard to see why any industry should be exempt from taxation, and have guaranteed by the state constitution. Ordinarily the more we fool with the constitution the worse off we are. Does it have to be patched for the benefit of every industry in the state? One is as worthy of exemption as the next, and the point of being freed from the 3% sales tax means about $5,000,000 which will have to be raised somehow. What is fairer than to let those who use the gas and the highways pay that tax. It goes on the food you eat. The proposal of this amendment plan is so wide that it is no wonder that some of its parts have escaped the average voter. For instance, there is that phrase that reads "in lieu of all other taxes, state and local." There is no guarantee of lower gas prices. It can mean a chance for increased profits.

Changes in taxation are not permanently reflected in the price of gasoline. On January 1 of last year, the federal tax on gasoline was reduced by 1/2 cent per gallon. Shortly after this, however, the price to the consumer was increased by 1 cent per gallon. The amendments do not guarantee a permanent reduction in the price of gasoline.

The situation looks about as follows on this tax business:

1. Tax limitation by constitutional amendment is wrong. It is entirely a legislative function.

2. Considerable revenue ($5,000,000 to $7,000,000) now realized from the 3% per cent sales tax would be lost to the public schools.

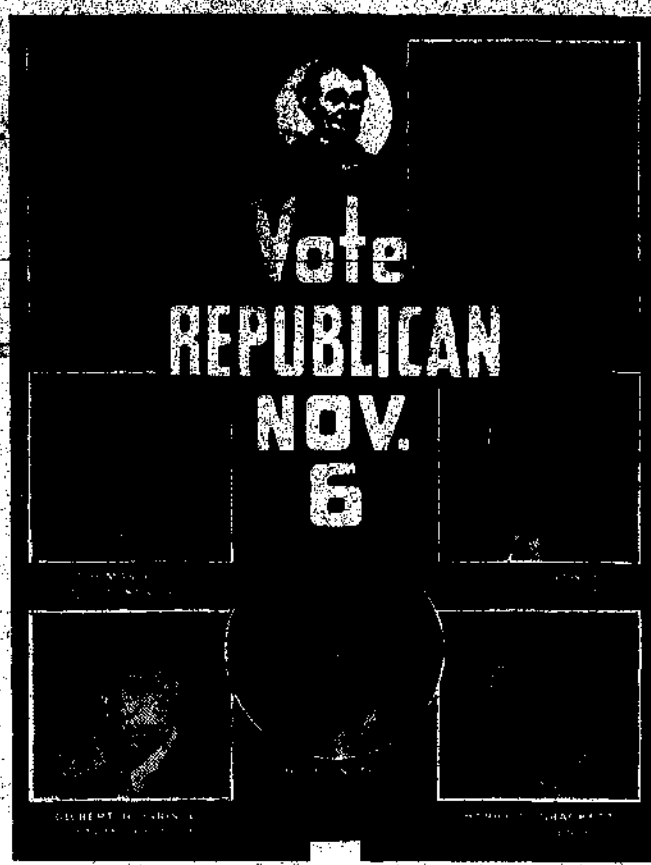

3. The business and income of the oil, gasoline and automotive industry would be exempt from any other form of taxation, except ad valorem and police license fees.

4. The proposed amendments do not guarantee a reduction in the price of gasoline and allied products.

5. Gasoline tax is a just tax. Users pay in proportion to use.

6. Why remove the sales tax from our major sales (autos and gasoline)? Again—users pay the tax in proportion to purchases.

History of Hungarians

Little is known of the history of the Hungarians previous to their appearance in Europe in 894. They are generally believed to be the descendants of the Scythians, and to have come from regions about the Caspian sea. They first settled along the Middle Volga, but having been pressed westward, they in 899 crossed the Carpathian mountains under Arpa, and under the further leadership of his son Arpad they conquered the ancient Pannonia, and Dacia of the Romans; and this, their new country, was in the year 1000 formed into a regular kingdom by Stephen.

Next Tuesday Is Election Day

HUGE BALLOTS AWAIT VOTERS TO CLOSE BUSY CAMPAIGN

For the past six weeks candidates for national, state, district and county offices have been busy campaigning. Messages have been carried from one end of the state to the other; newspapers, radio, billboards and direct mailing, all have played their respective parts in telling about the qualifications of the several candidates. Now it is the voters' turn to reply, and next Tuesday the polls all over the country will be open for that purpose.

The election ballots are huge in size. The official candidate ballot is 28 x 17 inches in size and contains one column for the names of the offices to be voted for and ten columns for the number of party tickets. They are in the order of their arrangement on the ballots as follows:

Democratic, Republican, Socialist party, Communist party, Commonwealth, (formerly known as the prohibition party), Socialist Labor party, American party, People's Progressive, Farmer-Labor party and National party.

Only the Republican and Democrat parties present anywhere nearly complete lists of candidates. The other parties show candidates for national and state offices only.

The Amendment Ballot.

The amendment ballot presents six proposals to the voters. These appeared in full in last week's edition of the Avalanche. Judging from remarks concerning the amendments there will be many voting no on all six. No. 1, concerning the non-partisan election of judges; and No. 4, permitting the adoption of home-rule government by counties seem to have some backing. The latter strikes us as a step toward the enforced consolidation of counties. This is a measure that has long been a hobby of Arthur Lacy, the democratic candidate for governor at this election. Certainly those people residing in the north part of the state do not care to have that measure forced upon us. It may have good features, still the question as to where it may lead to makes us question the wisdom of supporting it.

Thus, on the amendments we believe it would be good reasoning to vote no on all proposals. Let the legislature handle them.

The polls open at 7:00 a. m. Tuesday, November 6th, and close at 6:00 p. m. With the republicans and the democrats voting straight tickets this year it shouldn't take long to count the votes.

Potato Show At Gaylord Nov. 6, 7, 8

The Top O' Michigan Potato, Apple, and Seed Show to be held at Gaylord on November 6, 7, and 8 promises to be the outstanding Show of its kind in the state. Indications point to a large display of fine quality potatoes, apples, and alfalfa seed. Favorable weather conditions during the harvesting season have made it possible for farmers in the Show district to select exceptional exhibits from their fine crops of potatoes and apples. The number of alfalfa seed entries is not expected to be as large as in previous years as weather conditions in general were not favorable for alfalfa seed production, however the seed which was produced is of exceptionally good quality.

Exhibitors are asked to bear in mind that the Show is to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday this year. No entries will be made after 7:00 P. M. on Monday, November 5.

For an outline of the interesting program which has been arranged, see the advertisement appearing elsewhere in this issue.

Theater Seat Space Regulated

District of Columbia regulations require that all theaters or public buildings with fixed seats must allow a space not less than 2 feet 6 inches from back to back of chairs, with an aisle width of not less than 4 feet—this width to be increased with the movement time of the hall. Where there are no fixed seats, 6 inches for each person must be allowed.

Your Next Governor

Brief Biographies of Frank D. Fitzgerald and Arthur J. Lacy, Gubernatorial Candidates

Frank D. Fitzgerald

Frank D. Fitzgerald, Republican candidate for governor, selected his own middle initial. His parents had him christened "Thaddeus," but as soon as he discovered it, he discarded that and substituted "Dwight" as his second name.

Born at Grand Ledge on Jan. 27, 1885, Fitzgerald finds his greatest contentment among the folks with whom he has neighbored 47 years. He calls himself a "hick" at heart, raises cows and chickens and has a pony, and drives back and forth between Grand Ledge and Lansing daily. He admits that his farming is of the dude variety, however.

He was educated in the Grand Ledge schools and Ferris Institute.

If Fitzgerald has a weakness it is for the friendships which have grown in the 22 years he has served the state, first as an attaché of the Senate and House in 1912, 1915, and 1917, with clerical duties under the secretary of state between sessions, then a job with the State Food Administration from 1917 to 1919, and after that as deputy secretary of state under Coleman C. Vaughan from January 1919, to July 1923, when he became business manager of the Michigan Highway Department. Since Jan. 1, 1921, he has been secretary of state.

Fitzgerald has also served as secretary of the Republican State Central Committee. Few men in Lansing have a wider acquaintance throughout the state.

Gardening about his home, an occasional bridge game with friendly neighbors, or a hike with his son, John, are his principal diversions. He doesn't like golf, considering it a waste of time.

If the early worm had any advantages in politics, that may account partially for his success. Fitzgerald never has outgrown the neighborhood tradition of a 9 o'clock bedtime and 6:30 start in the morning. Frequently he disposes of considerable work before breakfast, and unfailingly he is at his desk in Lansing by 8 o'clock. He won't work at night.

Fitzgerald doesn't go in much for vacations—once having gone 18 years without a respite—but likes an occasional fishing and hunting trip. Neither, however, arouses the enthusiasm in him that they do in Gov. Comstock or former Gov. Green.

The nominee is a coffee addict. Doesn't drink with his meals, but likes to open a thermos bottle about half way through the morning stretch. He rarely smokes cigars, never a pipe.

He keeps his fingers on the public pulse by closely following the newspapers daily, first the politics and then editorials, with a glance at the financial columns also.

In a small way, Fitzgerald has gone in also for banking. He is president of Loan & Deposit State Bank of Grand Ledge and worked early and late to solve its problems during the banking holiday.

He was married on July 23, 1909, to Queens M. Warner, of Milledgeville. They have one son, John.

Fitzgerald is a 33rd degree Mason and Shriner, and is a member of the Macabees, Oddfellows, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Knights of Pythias, and Order of Eastern Star.

Arthur J. Lacy

Friendliness and persistence are two of the foremost attributes of Judge Arthur J. Lacy, Democratic candidate for governor.

His never-failing explanation of political success is just that "people have been wonderful to me." Yet few men of public affairs have worked more diligently to earn their way up the rungs of the ladder of success.

Lacy's judgeship was short-lived. He was named by the then Gov. Woodbridge N. Ferris, in July, 1913, to preside over Detroit's court of domestic relations, but the statute authorizing the court was found unconstitutional the following April. Like the Kentucky title of "Colonel," that of "Judge" has clung to Lacy ever since.

Lacy overcame adversity in the days of his youth. Born in a sparsely settled barren Lake county, he taught school when he was 15 years old for $22 a month to pursue his education, supplementing those meager earnings with what he could derive raising sheep.

Graduated from Valparaiso University in 1896, a special dispensation was necessary for his admission to practice law in the Indiana courts when he was only 19. Two years later he received his L. L. B. from Michigan.

Politics interested him early. He campaigned for William Jennings Bryan, apostle of 16 to 1, back in 1896.

One of the first to recognize the plight of small banks which had found it necessary to close before the bank holiday, he was instrumental in working out reorganization plans for many. He relied mainly on a candid explanation of the complications to depositors.

Representing the Cousins Children's Fund Foundation, the Rockham Fund and the Detroit Community Trust, he did not hesitate to sacrifice fees for himself by severing the two latter connections because he interpreted his political ambitions to be in conflict with the spirit of the founder.

Lacy is a golf fiend. One of the regrets of his campaign has been that it has so completely demanded his attention that he has been denied the relaxation of the golf course. A second regret is that he has not found time to loiter in the luxury of his wonderful library.

Besides affiliations with numerous law groups he is a Knight Templar, Shriner, and member of the D. A. C., Detroit Golf Club, Dearborn Country Club, Lake Placid Club and Ingleside Club.

Mrs. Lacy was Beth Garwick, of Morrison, Ill. The Lacy's have no children. Their home is at 1933 Berkeley Road, Sherwood Forest.

The Solomons

The Solomons, which are situated about 900 miles northeast of Australia, are among the most remote of Pacific Islands, yet, save for the Ladrone, and perhaps the Marshall, they were the earliest found by Europeans. They were discovered, strangely, from Peru, where adventures, thirsting for more gold, heard rumors of a southeast close by to the west. Lost for 300 years, they were rediscovered in 1568.

Hallowe'en Parties

At the Hay Loft masquerade party Saturday night, Mrs. William Foley in Japanese costume captured the first prize for the best dressed lady and Harry Ward as a clown for the best dressed gent. Mrs. Paul Lovely and Donald Feldhauser carried off the honors for the most comical costumes.

Mrs. Ray Skingley entertained with a very clever Hallowe'en party at Whispering Pines Monday evening. It was a real Hallowe'en party with witches, ghosts and everything.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stephan entertained with a dinner party in celebration of Hallowe'en. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Knecht, Mrs. Belle Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. George Skingley and family.

Guinivere Trudeau was hostess Saturday afternoon at a Hallowe'en party at her home. Sixteen young guests dressed as clowns, pirates and witches were there and Mary Jane Joseph cleverly costumed as a gypsy, amused them by telling their fortunes. Games were played with Jeanne Hanson winning a prize for the best idea of Hallowe'en. Refreshments were served at a table gaily decorated with cats, witches and pumpkins with a large pumpkin face adorning the center of the table.

In celebration of Hallowe'en the alumnae of Mercy Hospital enjoyed a Hallowe'en party last evening at the home of Mrs. Elsie Burke-Larson.

As Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kennedy's wedding anniversary falls in October, each year they celebrate the occasion with a Hallowe'en party. Tuesday night they entertained 39 guests, who made merry until the wee hours of morning. Mr. Kennedy who is an expert in decorating, fashioned from paper the very clever and unique designs that were used to transform the home into one of gaiety. Everyone had a jolly time.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mrs. Ida Granger had as her guest over the week end, Harvey Russell, of Grand Rapids.

Among the attractions to appear at the Rialto Theatre this coming week is "The Count of Monte Cristo." Don't miss this great production.

Mrs. Earl Mathewson gave her mother Mrs. John Knecht a pleasant surprise on her birthday anniversary Saturday, by entertaining a number of relatives and friends that evening at Twin Pine lodge.

Mrs. Esbern Hanson returned from Detroit last night accompanied by her son Esbern and Mrs. Margrethe Graham. Mrs. Graham and Esbern have been enjoying a five weeks pleasure trip that took them to Chicago, Milwaukee, Toledo and Detroit.

Mrs. Henry J. DeWaele of Roscommon was a patient at Mercy Hospital the first of the week nursing minor injuries received Monday night, when their automobile skidded on the slippery pavement and struck a tree. Mr. DeWaele and their little grandson who were also in the car were uninjured.

Father Sage Says:

Asking people to candidly tell you about the faults in your writing moves nobody from his common sense determination to do nothing of the kind.

PROF. JEAN PICCARD made another balloon ascension into the atmosphere, and accompanying him was his plucky wife, Jeanette, the only licensed woman balloon pilot in the United States. They ascended from Detroit with their 600,000 cubic-foot bag, passed over Lake Erie, rose to a height of about ten miles, and then came down on a farm four miles west of Cadiz, Ohio. The gondola landed in a tree but the two occupants were only slightly bruised and scratched, and it was believed the delicate scientific instruments they carried were unharmed. The trip was made for the purpose of studying the cosmic rays, and no effort was made to establish a record for altitude.

LEUT. FRANCESCO AGELO of Italy, known as "Crazy Boy" because of his daring aerial performances, set a new record for speed in flight when he drove his airplane over a course at Desenzano, four times at an average of 440.28 miles an hour.

JOHN B. CHAPPLE, Republican candidate for United States senator from Wisconsin, proved himself to be a gentleman at Waukesha. He was listed as principal speaker at a rally there. John Gay, candidate for congress, preceded him on the program and alluded to President Roosevelt as "a man who can't stand on his own feet without crutches." Mr. Chapple arose and said:

"Men and women of Waukesha, the President of the United States has been insulted by a previous speaker on this program in a serious personal way, and while I may differ with Democratic policies, I will not stand for that kind of an attack on the President's physical infirmity, and I therefore refuse to speak on this program and will return to Waukesha at some later time."

SILK and rayon dyers did not join in the recent general strike of textile workers, because of their contract, but 30,000 of them in the Passaic valley and the New York metropolitan area have now quit their jobs and the dye houses were closed perforce.

When negotiations for a new contract began two months ago the union asked for a 30-hour week at $1 an hour and a closed shop. The closed shop was the sore point of issue. Neither side would change its attitude.

George Baldanzi, president of the Federation of Silk and Rayon Dyers, then waived the demand for a 30-hour week at $30 a week and said the union would accept a minimum guarantee of $20. This proposal was rejected by the employers.

P. W. Chappell, conciliator of the Department of Labor, was on the ground trying to effect a compromise, but the leaders on both sides were so angry that his early efforts were unavailing.

CONVERSATIONS preliminary to the 1935 naval conference opened in London, and the Japanese did what was expected of them. Ambassador Matsudaira and Admiral Yamamoto told the British and the Americans in turn that Japan was not satisfied with the existing treaties—every one knew that—and set forth these main points:

1. The powers should agree that Japan may have equality, "in principle," in defensive armaments.
2. The ratio system should be abolished, and "defensive" ships limited on a total tonnage basis, instead of by categories.
3. Each nation would drastically reduce "offensive" armaments, thus cutting down the chances of any war of aggression, while building whatever "defensive" ships within the tonnage limit agreed it feels it needs for security.

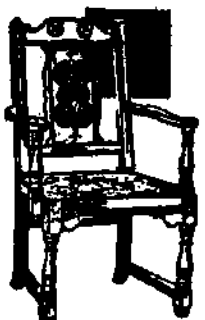

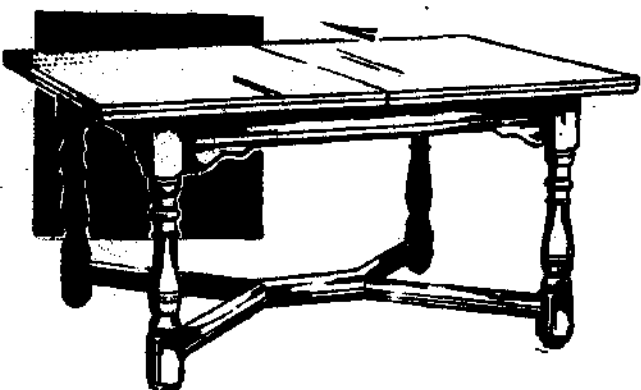

BRUNO HAUPTMANN's effort to avoid extradition from New York failed, so he was taken to jail at Flemington, N. J., to await trial for the murder of Colonel Lindbergh's baby boy. Attorney General Wilentz and his staff of assistants were completing their arrangements for presenting the case against the carpenter.

Q. L. Lightfoot of Franklin Park, N. J., told reporters that his son, Richard, fifteen years old, had identified Hauptmann as the man who had talked to the family's chauffeur on the back road ten days before the Lindbergh kidnapping.

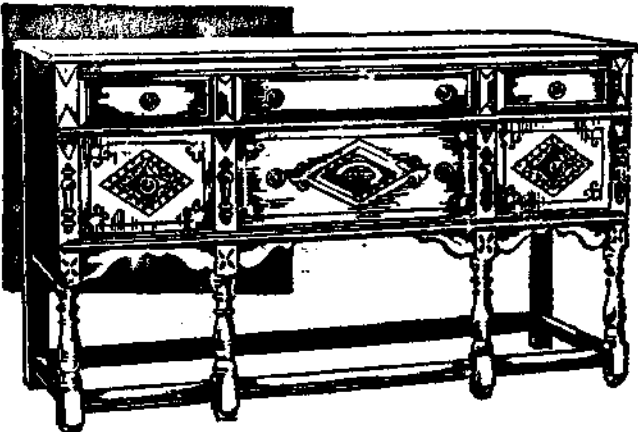

Hauptmann was arraigned before Justice Thomas E. Trenchard and pleaded not guilty. The trial was set for January 2 at the request of Mr. Wilentz, who said: "I don't think this trial should go through the holidays. I think it would be distasteful to the people. Then, too, this is a capital case and the defense should have ample time to prepare its case."

THREE American physicians have been awarded the Nobel prize in medicine for 1934. They are Dr. George Minot and Dr. William P. Murphy of the Harvard medical school and Dr. George E. Whipple of the University of Rochester. The prize of $41,000 is divided among them for their development of liver therapy in anemia.

Small Crowd Hear Democratic Speakers

There was small attendance at the democratic rally held at the Court house last Friday evening—about 50 including the speakers and members of the county committee under whose auspices the meeting was held.

After a half hour concert by Grayling band before the meeting place the meeting opened. C. O. McCullough was the chairman.

The first speaker was Mr. Alward of Bay City who said he had the honor to represent Frank A. Picard, "one of the most brilliant men in Michigan. He has put thru more progressive legislation in the short time he has been in office (chairman of the liquor commission) than his opponent (Arthur Vandenberg) has in his entire time in Washington. Picard is 100%."

Editor Whitney of Midland, the second speaker, spent most of his time lambasting newspapermen for being disloyal in their duties by "failing to publish all the news." He said that he gladly lost from $12,000 to $15,000 annually when the delinquent tax list publications were discontinued. He praised Picard by claiming that he did a good job (as liquor commissioner) and should be in Washington. "I'm not questioning Mr. Vandenberg's ability—he is an able man. The president must have in Washington sympathetic co-operation. Vandenberg admits there is some good in the NRA, AAA and CWA, but he is straddling."

"If we put thru the new deal we must have men who will back up the president. We are not without representation in Washington, if we send a Republican, since congress is overwhelming democratic."

"If we're going ahead we must vote a straight democratic ticket from senator down to coroner."

Justice of the Peace Haller of Bay City said he was here to talk national issues. He referred to Fitzgerald by saying that he was a "machine candidate." Lacy, almost unaltered, went out and won over the dominant party, Fitzgerald machine—McKay, Barnard, McKiegan—men whom we are today ashamed of."

Haller continued his talk by claiming the democratic party as the progressive party. He took a slap at former democratic presidential candidates Al Smith of New York and Davis of Virginia. He compared the methods of President Hoover with those of President Roosevelt in their efforts to overcome the depression. The democratic party, the speaker claimed, was progressive under Bryan and under Wilson. He claimed the democratic party was the only one for a progressive. He touched lightly on the money question.

He claimed the republican program under Chairman Fletcher as "Back to the constitution government—back to personal liberty." He continued his address at some length of time and could find nothing but failure in the republican party and only good in the democratic.

A RAZOR THAT SHOCKS THE WHISKERS

Not only this invention, but other unique devices, including a scratcher for itching hives, and a draft protector for wives of "fresh air friends," are described in an article you'll find in The American Weekly with Sunday's Detroit Times.

"Sehr Gut"
that beer from the little German town!

FROM Frankenth Gold Medal Beer were served in the beer-halls of Berlin or Hamburg, Germany, the customers would say, "Sehr Gut!" (Very good!)

How do we know? German citizens have told us! It is an accepted fact that the beer Germans like is the beer everybody likes!

Frankenth, Michigan, is an all-German town—famous all over the state for its cooking and brewing. You can now buy the famous beer of the Old Frankenth Brewery right here—on draft or in bottles.

It's different. Somehow, Old Frankenth Gold Medal Beer has the touch of the German-born brewer. It's the "real thing."

the Election Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1934

If elected your state representative, I pledge my support and promise my efforts towards the following legislative program:

A Road Building Program, for the state of Michigan, and particularly for Northeastern Michigan, which has been neglected for many years. I will make every effort for the completion of unfinished trunk line highways and the addition of such as are needed in this district.

Cooperating And Working In Conjunction With the Conservation Department; The future of the tourist business goes hand and hand with Conservation. The Tourist Business is one of the largest enterprises in our state, being second in importance only to the automobile business. A conservative estimate of the volume of tourist business in the state yearly is given as $274,000,000.00. Tourists pay $3,000,000.00 of gas tax and $2,000,000.00 of sales tax, a total of five million dollars in taxes. Every dollar obtained in taxes from the tourist, relieves the burden of taxes from citizens of the state. It is therefore very important that we offer every recreational facility.

Legislation To Reduce The Non-Resident Hunters' License Fee, for such hunters as own property in Michigan subject to taxation. This is an inducement to non-residents to purchase property and will help in putting our recreational lands on the tax roll.

Legislation To Modify The 3% Sales Tax so that it will exempt food products.

For Reduction Of Telephone And Electric Rates. The rates on electricity are entirely too high, thereby depriving the home-owner of many conveniences which he is entitled to but cannot afford.

Employment Of Prisoners In A Gainful Occupation Manufacturing Such Products As Are Not Manufactured In This State, profits from the sale of these commodities to be used for the upkeep of the state prisons, enabling the prisons to be self supporting and not a burden to the tax payers.

Legislation Setting Aside Specific Revenues Of The State, to be used for the support of the schools of the state, particularly the rural districts, enabling the payment of reasonable teacher's salaries and the maintenance of a full school year.

I Am For Old Age Pensions But Against The Head Tax As A Means Of Financing Them, as it is impractical and unjust.

I Will Cooperate With The National Administration as it pertains to State Affairs, thereby assuring the state of its fair share of benefits as they may be derived from Federal sources.

PRESERVE SUGGESTIONS

HOW many of our housewives know the deliciousness of pickled and preserved watermelon rind? Instead of throwing it away try some of the good methods of preparing it for winter.

Preserved Watermelon Rind.
Cut the red portion of the melon from the rind, remove the green skin and cut into neat uniform pieces. Soak in lime water for three hours, then rinse and stand in ice water for an hour. Drain and cook in boiling water until tender. Make a sirup of two pounds of sugar and four quarts of water, drop the rind into it with one lemon, sliced thin, with a little ginger root, using two pounds of prepared melon rind. Cook until thick. Pack in jars and cover with the sirup. Seal.

Preserved Peas.
Take one pound each of peas and sugar, one pint of water and one lemon. The fruit may be preserved whole, in halves, or quartered. Boil the sugar and water five minutes. Cook the lemon in just water to cover, adding thin; when tender and transparent add water and all to the peas and sirup and cook until the peas are clear and the sirup is thick. If the hard peas are used cook them in the water until tender and use the water for the sirup. A few cloves and stick cinnamon may be added if desired, and pineapple juice instead of water makes a most delightful flavor.

Pumpkin Preserves.
Remove the rind and seeds from a small pumpkin and cut into inch cubes. Cook in a small amount of water until tender. Drain and weigh. For each pound of pumpkin allow a pound of sugar, two lemons and two ounces of ginger root. Slice the lemon and soak with the ginger overnight in cold water. Next morning cook in the same water until the lemon rind is clear and tender. Add the sugar and pumpkin and simmer until the pumpkin is transparent. Drain, pack in jars. Cook the sirup until thick and pour over the fruit in the jars. Seal.

Father Sage Says:
There may be reasons why a man should try to deceive others, but why should he try to deceive himself?

London's First Gas Lamps

On January 28, 1808, Pall Mall burst into unworldly splendor at dusk, when for the first time in any city gas was used in street lighting. Great-grandfathers owed the honor to an enterprising German named Winsor. The prejudice against the innovation was all but universal, and cartoonists drew comic pictures of unoffending citizens being choked by the new illuminant. Sir Walter Scott, who was in London at the time, wrote about the madman's scheme for lighting the town with smoke, and even Sir Humphrey Davy gave it as his opinion that it would be as easy to bring down a bit of the moon to light London as to succeed in doing so with gas.

Exhibit Recalls Porcelain Find

At Meissen, Germany, a permanent porcelain exhibition has been created in the Albrechtsburg in which Johann Bottger, trying to produce gold for King August the Strong, stumbled on to the secret of making porcelain. In one small banquet room a table is set with the famous coral-red porcelain with the dragon-mark, which was manufactured exclusively for the Saxon royal house until the end of 1818. The "Bottger room" has mural paintings showing the inventor at his labors, and a showcase contains the materials used in making porcelain.

Meteor and Meteorite

A meteor is "a sudden luminous phenomenon, as of a star or bright body in rapid motion through the air, produced by a small mass of matter from the celestial spaces striking the air with planetary velocity, and suffering heating, disintegration, or combustion." A meteorite is "a fallen meteor; a mass of stone or iron that has fallen upon the earth from space." In other words, says Literary Digest, a meteor remains a meteor unless it falls upon the earth; in which case it is called a meteorite.

First Bank Started

The first bank can be traced to ancient Rome, Greece, Egypt and Babylon. In the modern sense of the term, the earliest bank is probably that of Barcelona in Spain, which was established in 1401. In America there was little banking before the adoption of the Constitution. The first bank was the Pennsylvania bank, which commenced business on the 17th of July, 1780.

William Green has many close friends in this county. With him in the legislature, our people have a friend in court. He with some of his young friends were out hunting rabbits Saturday when he was accidentally shot in the right shoulder by Donald Peterson. The shot however entered the fleshy part of the shoulder and fortunately did not injure the bone.

Justice of the Peace Haller of Bay City certainly knew how to stretch the truth and heap vituperation on the republicans in his Democratic campaign speech here last week Friday night. Such talks make one all the more appreciate the fine, clean and mud slinging campaign conducted by Frank D. Fitzgerald and Arthur Vandenberg, republican candidates for governor and U. S. senator respectively.

One of Arthur Lacy's pet hobbies for several years past is the "consolidation of counties, especially the 'poorer ones'." If these Detroiters would look after their own doorsteps our northern counties can take care of themselves. Crawford county is quite free from debt while Wayne county will never be able to catch up with its creditors. We certainly don't want a Detroit with such sentiments as Mr. Lacy's for our governor.

Last Saturday the Maple Forest 4-H Club attended the Crawford, Osgood and Montmorency Achievement day held at Gaylord, winning several ribbons. Their exhibit of potatoes and canned fruits and vegetables will be on display in the window at the Grayling Hardware. Others who care to are invited to exhibit any unusual vegetable they have grown on their farm this season. Six members of the Maple Forest club have finished the work. A banquet was held for the children in the Congregational church at Gaylord and they enjoyed the day very much.

Merle F. Nellist has purchased the property of Roy Barber on Chestnut street, and will move in as soon as the Barber family vacate. The latter expect to go to Bay City where they will make their home. They have been residents of Grayling for twenty-four years during which time Mr. Barber was employed by the M. C. R. R., now in the capacity of engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Barber have many friends who will be sorry to know they are leaving Grayling. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorenson and family will move into their own home now occupied by the Nellist family.

Mrs. Alex LaGrow returned home Friday after being away for about three weeks. Mrs. LaGrow in company with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dreher, of Detroit, enjoyed a trip to Quebec and other Canadian points. They visited the Shrine of St. Ann at Montreal and at Tecumseh, Ontario visited Mrs. LaGrow's 88 year old mother, Mrs. Girard, whom she found in good health and enjoying life to the utmost. Returning Friday Mrs. LaGrow was accompanied by Mr. Dreher and her daughter Miss Yvonne. The latter returned to Detroit, where she will spend the winter.

SCHOOL AFFAIRS

On Wednesday the gym once again resounded to the shrill blowing of the referee's whistle as the basketball players swung into action.

Practice began at four o'clock with 32 men reporting. From these 32 Coach Cornell selected 14 veterans who will play on the first squad. George Hanson and Leo Lovely, who have been on the sick list, will soon be able to take their regular places. Don Gothro, who has also been ill, will not be able to report for three or four weeks.

The second squad consists of the other 18 men who turned out on Wednesday. Later Mr. Cornell expects to cut this number to about 12 regular players.

Although the outlook for the basketball team this year at first looked pretty gloomy, regular practice has revived the old spirit and the team is looking forward to that first game with the alumni.

Following are the members of the first squad:
Leo Lovely.

"Kids will be kids," or as the child specialists tell us, "High school students aren't half as grown up as they would have us believe." The young ladies of the Home Ec. Department gave proof in plenty as to the accuracy of this contention when they prepared for their "Little Girls Party" last week. Everyone went way way back to the days of their childhood (as long as 2 or 3 years ago for some) and dressed up in some outfit worn then.

The gathering dispersed early, as is befitting a party made up of little kiddies in knee-length dresses and pig tails, and altho, for some reason or other, most of the little darlings failed to bring nurse along, we are sure they all arrived home by 10 o'clock to be tucked into bed for the nine hours sleep required by every growing child. For the next morning they were "all in their places, with sunshiny faces, oh that is the way to start a new day."

The second all-High School party, under the management of the Junior-Senior party committee, was held in the school gym Wednesday night to celebrate Halloween. A large crowd turned out and a good time was had by all. We will give you the details later.

RED CROSS RELIEF GIVEN TO VICTIMS IN 103 DISASTERS

Tornadoes, Fires, Hurricanes,
Floods, Epidemics, Make
Record of Year

A history of the disasters in the United States in any year is written annually by the American Red Cross, according to Chairman John Barton Payne, commenting on the report for the year ending June 30, 1934, which has just been issued to Washington.

"Because of the charter provision which places upon the Red Cross the responsibility for disaster relief, our chapter and staff workers are notified of all calamities of storm and fire and flood," he continued. "The emergency period may prove to be brief, in cases where the victims have their own resources to draw on. While it lasts, however, whether it brings the immediate need of food, clothing and shelter for the homeless, or entails a program of investigation and rehabilitation, the Red Cross is the official director of all relief."

A great variation in type, and a wide geographical distribution, characterize the 103 disasters reported last year. Tornadoes, hurricanes, hailstorms and other storms made up almost one-half of the total. Especially numerous were the tropical storms which swept in from the sea to the Atlantic and Gulf Coast region. There were 21 storms of this type, establishing a new record for frequency.

Next in number to storms were disasters of fire, the report shows. Red Cross aid was given following 25 fires in the United States and in-ular possessions. The most spectacular was the Chicago stockyards fire, where Red Cross workers arrived shortly after the fire started, administering relief until the emergency period passed, giving first aid to about 1,000 persons.

Floods caused serious damage in some sections, 17 calling for Red Cross relief. Three explosions were reported and three epidemics of malaria and typhoid fever. A school bus wreck was one of the year's tragedies for which Red Cross funds were needed for relief and rehabilitation.

"Technique acquired by the Red Cross in these disasters and the hundreds of others we have handled is at the service of the public," Chairman Payne said. "To make this possible the disaster relief service has issued a manual containing instructions for chapters interested in advance preparations for emergencies. Disaster institutes were held last year in 28 strategic locations, to enable Red Cross and civic workers to formulate plans for possible disaster emergencies in their communities.

Support of the disaster relief activities of the Red Cross comes from the annual roll call held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

REPUBLICAN
GOVERNOR

FRANK FITZGERALD is a candidate for governor because 430,000 citizens regarded him not only as an honest, able, efficient public servant . . . but because he is "FIRST IN THE HEARTS OF HIS FRIENDS" that he received the amazing vote of confidence last September.

These friends insure his election. But Frank Fitzgerald is not basing his candidacy upon friendship. It is based upon experience, ability and a desire to aid in solving Michigan's problems. He urges AND WILL WORK FOR:

- Elimination of the state property tax.
- Adequate aid for the public school system.
- Protection of Michigan's boys and girls by preventing the sale of intoxicating liquor to minors.
- Removal of prison-made goods from competition with the products of free labor.
- A non-partisan board of pardons and paroles.
- Unemployment insurance.
- Ninety-day maximum for legislative sessions.
- An adequate old-age pension system without the head tax.
- Repeal of the act's tax on food.

Made the Savings of America Safe
The greatest contribution to the return to a safe, secure country came from the pen of Senator Vandenberg when he wrote the section of the law which guaranteed bank deposits and which now protects forty million depositions. Because of Vandenberg we now can place our funds in banks with full security.
